UN Charter's approval for Military Action

*673. SHRI VIJAY J. DARDA: Will the Minister of EXTERNAL AFFAIRS be pleased to state :

(a) whether Government are aware that according to the UN Secretary-General "s statement in Hague on the 10th March any military action outside the Council would not be in conformity with the UN Charter;

(b") if so, in what manner the UN Charter deals with such a situation if it actually happens; and

(c) Governments views in this regard and the diplomatic steps it visualises to avoid such a situation and for maintaining universal peace?

Ti IE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI DIGVIJ AY SINGH): (a) to (c) Speaking in the specific context of Iraq, which was an issue colore the Security Council on March 10, the UN Secretary General said "If the US and others were to go outside the Council and take military action it would not be in conformity with the Charter".

The Charter envisages use of force in case of self-defence or as authorised by the Security Council under Chapter VII.

The Government had expressed its sense of deep anguish at the resort to military action in Iraq, which in its view lacked justification and was avoidable. Government has been in contact with other Governments on a more effective role by the UN in avoiding such situations and in strengthening international peace and security.
